

Richard K. Cherry

3209 Honey Run Drive, York, PA 17404 717-792-3970 rusirius@suscom.net

Objective

To work with a team of talented professionals in an exciting and creative environment and to be able to use my creativity to it's fullest potential.

Experience

1996-2005

Graphic and Design Experience

- Six (6) Years using Adobe Photoshop for graphic design and texture creation.
- One (1) Year using Alias Maya for modeling and UV mapping.
- Two (2) Years using free ware 3D modeling program Wings 3D.
- Two (2) Years running a graphics design business out of home using Photoshop,
 - Macromedia Freehand, Poser and Bryce 4 for the creation of logos, book covers and CD music covers for various customers.

1996-2005

Mechanical Designer

- Nine (9) years experience as a Mechanical Designer for companies such as DeWalt/Black and Decker and York International.
- Mechanical designer with nine (9) years experience working with various 3D design programs such as Autocad, CATIA and Inventor.
- Responsible for the creation of technical documentation and assembly manuals as well as product development and initiation of new products into the production environment.
- Responsible for keeping deadlines in a fast-paced work environment.
- Prototype design, creation and testing of various new components.

Education

1990-1996 Greenville Technical College Greenville, SC

- Associates Degree in Engineering and Graphics Design

1986-1990 US Air Force McConnell AFB, KS

- Crew chief and mechanic on KC 135 refueling aircraft. Obtained a Secret security clearance as well as attending various technical schools.

1986 Graduate: South Carroll High Sykesville, MD

- Graduated with a Fine Arts Certificate.

References

Available upon request.